

Corporate Health Dynamics Street Therapy

Why Street Therapy?

Only the human being moves counter to their true nature – spirituality.

Only the human being eats “twice dead” food that ravages his spirit.

Only the human being poisons his soul and the souls of others.

Only the human being pillages the land fueled by greed.

Only the human being lives in denial to shield him or herself from the truth.

Only the human being removes God from the entire equation of life, when, ironically, the equation is God's signature design expressed as, “opposites of equal proportion of power that bilaterally manifests a third power of one.” Since we are all part of this equation, we are all one with God.

Only the human being refuses to include God in his daily life when it is God that giveth and taketh life away.

Only the human being take his cues from the Streets, which devours his spiritual power, more so than taking his cues from that which is complete, the Almighty Elite – housed within the CHD model – giving human beings the power to tower over that which tends to devour.

Only the human being refuses to “get the therapy and experience the clarity in spiritual health, healing and prosperity.”

Only the human being perpetuates this cycle of failure that is “played” out in life generation after generation after generation.

Why Street Therapy?

Street Therapy should not be the question; Street Therapy should be the answer.

Are human beings capable of answering the call and embracing a grace that can unite us all?

Definitive answer: Only the human being is incapable of embracing a common grace that can advance the evolution of human potential, even though we all originated from the same power base – the power of God.
